

The Most Profitable

... Fertilizer To Be Used Is ...

for red lands, 8-3-3—9-3-3—10-3-3; for gray lands, 8-4-4—10-4-4.

You get more for your money in these analyses than in the lower grades.

The freight incoming and outgoing, labor account and general expenses, is just as much on a ton of 10-2-2 as it is on a ton of 10-4-4. The difference in the cost of the goods is the difference in the cost of the extra material in the 10-4-4 and then you get Fish in these high grade goods and fish lasts longer in the soil than any other ammoniate going into Fertilizer.

The longer your fertilizer lasts the longer your crops will keep growing.

The longer you keep your crop green and growing the better crops you will make.

The difference in cost per acre is very little, say One Dollar an Acre, the difference in the yield of cotton is much more than that.

The high grade goods are the economical goods to buy. The Anderson Phosphate & Oil Company goods are the goods to buy. They use the very best of material and use plenty of it.

FINLAY SCHOLARSHIPS.

Fitting Memorial.—At the Agricultural College.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 18.—As a fitting memorial to the late President Finlay and in recognition of his interest in agricultural education in the south, President Fairfax Harrison, of the Southern Railway, has addressed a letter to the heads of each of the nine state agricultural colleges in the south suggesting that the agricultural scholarships which President Finlay inaugurated in the early part of 1912 be designated "Southern Railway Scholarships; William Wilson Finlay Foundation."

These scholarships, which offer complete courses in agriculture to deserving students, have been in existence since 1912. By Southern Railway and the Southern Railway system, the heads of each of the nine state agricultural colleges in the south are urged to accept the suggestion and to maintain the following list of institutions: Alabama College of Agriculture, Auburn; Georgia College of Agriculture, Athens; Mississippi Agricultural and Mechanical College, Hattiesburg; North Carolina College of Agriculture, Raleigh; South Carolina College of Agriculture, Columbia; Tennessee College of Agriculture, Knoxville; University of Florida, Gainesville; Virginia Polytechnic Institute, Blacksburg, Va.

In inaugurating these scholarships, late President Finlay was following his policy of leading every practical step in the agricultural development of the territory served by the Southern Railway and affiliated companies. Each young man accepting a scholarship must agree to engage in agricultural work to teach agriculture or to work on an experiment farm for at least three years in territory touched by one of the lines making the offer. The details as to the conditions under which the scholarships are awarded are in the hands of the college heads.

U. of P.'s Golden Jubilee.

Washington, Feb. 19.—The Knights of Pythias are fifty years old today; the order having been founded on Feb. 19, 1864, and their golden jubilee will be marked with appropriate celebrations throughout the land. It is to be nationally celebrated in this city for three days, and all the orders throughout the state are represented by delegates. Secretary of State Bryan who is a member of the order, and Thomas H. Carlin, supreme chancellor of Macedonia, will address the assembled knights. The President declined to speak but will receive delegates at the meeting tomorrow, the second day of the meeting Grand Chancellor Elmer F. Kimball and Grand K. of K. R. John H. Merckens, sent to all lodges an address referring to fact that many will not live to see the centennial of the order and make their celebration of this jubilee be of such a nature as will be remembered by all for their participation in the order and home. At 8:15 o'clock tonight their sentiments of loyalty to the throughout the land a toast to "Pythianism" will be offered, so that from border to border at the same moment all the voices will express substantially the same sentiments at the same time.

For two weeks we are sending you this paper free to prove to you the merits of The Daily Intelligencer. If you like it, let us know how much.

Any Cobwebs In Your Brain?

THE newspaper people are the most villainous, abominable, infernal—not that I ever read them! No, I make it a rule never to look into a newspaper.

That's from "The Critic," one of Richard Brinsley Sheridan's satirical comedies back in the eighteenth century. "It's sad, but true, that a few such wonderful 'critics' still exist today. Thus they rant of newspaper advertisements. 'The advertisements! Sir, they are the most villainous, abominable, infernal!—Not that I ever read them! No, I make it a rule never to look at the advertisements.' Honestly, folks, isn't it too bad that the fool killer germ hasn't been invented yet? You certainly know that this is the age of PURBILITY. You certainly know that our careful and successful merchants spend thousands of dollars each month in JUDICIOUS ADVERTISING. You certainly know that it is a PART OF THEIR BUSINESS that they PAY THEM. PAY US. PAY YOU. Surely there are no cobwebs in your brain. Please laugh at foolish 'critics' if you happen to stumble across any. This newspaper prints only what it believes to be HONEST ADVERTISEMENTS accepted in GOOD FAITH from TRUST-WORTHY SOURCES.
